CANADIAN STAGE HIGH PARK AMPHITHEATRE

YOUR FIRST LOOK AT DIXON ROAD!

In anticipation of the world premiere of Fatuma Adar's new Canadian musical, DIXON ROAD - see a thrilling first look of Germaine Konji as Batoul singing 'Find Me' in our latest video release. Join us in the sunshine at the High Park Amphitheatre, June 1-19. Tickets on sale now.

A new Canadian musical with book, music and lyrics by Fatuma Adar, DIXON ROAD tells the story of a Somali family who immigrate to Canada in 1991 as the civil war begins to tear their homeland apart. They settle in Dixon Road, in a neighbourhood near Pearson airport that is still the heart of Toronto's Somali community today.

Combining R&B, contemporary verse and traditional Somali melodies, DIXON ROAD is an exhilarating journey about dreams, displacement, and finding a new sense of home. Join The Musical Stage Company & Obsidian Theatre Company for the arrival of an extraordinary new Canadian musical.

Kevin Wong (Singer/Songwriter) and Cailin Stadnyk (Singer/Actor) join forces to bring you a musical tour-de-force. They perform a diverse and dazzling array of original songs by Kevin, taken from his repertoire of existing and upcoming musicals, and classic songs that influenced them growing up.

Cailin, last seen and lauded in Toronto's beloved production of COME FROM AWAY, and Kevin, a two-time Playwrights Guild of Canada recipient, come together to sing the non-existent roof off the street in a concert that spans the gamut of musical theatre, pop, jazz, rock, and even a little bit of country.
